RAGDOLLS & CANNONBALLS

THE DIARY OF CARRIE BERRY

Carrie Berry was a 10 year-old girl living in Atlanta when General Sherman and the Union Army captured the city. In her diary, she describes the effects of the war on her family and herself. Following are excerpts from her diary from August, 1864 through January, 1865. They provide a first-hand account of the war through the eyes of a child:

MON. AUGUST 1, 1862

It was raining this morning and we thought we would not have any shelling today so I nursed Sister while Mama would do a little work, but before night we had to run to the cellar.

TUES. AUGUST 2, 1862

We have not been shelled much today, but the muskets have been going all day. I have done but little today but nurse Sister. She has not been well today.

WED. AUGUST 3, 1862

This was my birthday. I was ten years old, But I did not have a cake times were too hard so I celebrated with ironing. I hope by my next birthday we will have peace in our land so that I can have a nice dinner. read more
